

AlloAid® Dermal Matrix

INDICATIONS

AlloAid® Dermal Matrix is to be used for the repair or replacement of damaged or inadequate integumental tissue or for other homologous uses of human integument. AlloAid® Dermal Matrix is to be used as a covering for skin wounds (e.g. burns, ulcers) and should not be used in load-bearing applications. The standard allograft (non-meshed) may also be used for supplemental support, protection, reinforcement of covering of tendon. Each package of AlloAid® Dermal Matrix is intended for used in one patient on a single occasion by a licensed physician, surgeon, dentist or podiatrist.

CONTRAINDICATIONS

Use of AlloAid® Dermal Matrix in patients exhibiting autoimmune connective tissue disease is not recommended. AlloAid® Dermal Matrix should not be used in patients with sensitivities to processing agents.